Name of the Event: POSTER-MAKING COMPETITION
Date: 24 Sep 2020
Time: 3.00-4.00 PM

Programme Summary/Details:

On September 24, 2020, in commemoration of NSS Day, we organized a poster-making competition with the theme "COVID-19 Awareness, Corona Warriors." This event served as a platform for our NSS volunteers to showcase their creativity and dedication to spreading awareness about the pandemic. The participants crafted stunning posters that celebrated the frontline heroes and highlighted the importance of following safety guidelines. The competition was a resounding success, with participants demonstrating their artistic talent and deep commitment to creating a safer and more informed community. The event's impact reached beyond the posters themselves, as it reinforced the NSS spirit of community service and our collective fight against COVID-19.

SALUTE TO COVID WARRIORS

After Covid-19 thousands of people who are called our unsung heroes have been on duty since day 1. Such people are being called corona warriors across the nation. They consist of doctors, nurses, media persons, policemen, delivery guys, cleaning workers, pharmacist, scientist etc. These people are being thanked on different platforms.

Police Police playing crucial role in violence prevention and protection of child rights during the COVID-19 Pandemic. They gives us security and helping needy people in this situation.	Doctors The covid situation is dangerous for everyone. It is even more difficult for the doctors who are working tirelessly to ensure that all those that are infected are provided with proper medical facilities. Their contributions and hard work deserve our gratitude each and every day.	Scientist The COVID-19 pandemic has brought science and scientists to the forefront of public scrutiny. At the same time, it has forced many scientists to take a step back and introspect as lockdown procedures are implemented throughout the country.
Nurses Nurses are working in the forefront and are managing patient screenings, placement as well the care of patients in the COVID zone. They are working round the clock, pushing themselves to the limit and putting their lives on the line, very often with limited resources.	Sanitation workers In the war against Covid-19, sanitation workers have been playing a crucial role. When everyone is staying indoors amid the lockdown, sanitation workers come out of their houses to clean the city every day.	Reporters In the COVID 19 situation, The media have been following every step of this journey – with multiple stories, incessant headlines and continuous updates across the past few weeks. They travels a lot for giving information for people who are at home.
Social workers Social workers are in a unique position to promote disease prevention efforts (including disseminating accurate information from trusted sources), and to help address anxiety and other concerns that are arising as a result of this public health crisis.	Cleaning workers The COVID-19 pandemic has brought science and scientists to the forefront of public scrutiny. At the same time, it has forced many scientists to take a step back and introspect as lockdown procedures are implemented throughout the country.	Pharmacist As healthcare professionals, pharmacists can play key role during the pandemic, acting directly with the community, continuing to care for patients with chronic diseases, working in hospital pharmacies and providing pharmaceutical care to COVID-19 patients.
