Name of the Event: SWAMI VIVEKANANDA'S VALUE-BASED LEADERSHIP

Date: April 29, 2021

Programme Summary/Details:

On April 29, 2021, an NSS Volunteer from VIVA Institute of Pharmacy participated in a University-level session titled "Swami Vivekananda's Value-Based Leadership," organized by Balasaheb Thackeray Adhyasan Kendra. The event, conducted through an online Zoom meeting, featured Dr. Priya Vaidya, Associate Professor from the Department of Philosophy at the University of Mumbai, as the guest speaker. The session, presided over by Prof. Ravindra Kulkarni, Honorable Pro Vice-Chancellor of the University of Mumbai, began with a glimpse into Swami Vivekananda's early life and his transformation into a globally renowned figure of great character and leadership. Attendees were treated to audio-visual presentations and images of Swami Vivekananda's historic visit to Chicago, followed by a closing address by Dr. Supriya Karande, a Member of the Senate at the University of Mumbai. To commemorate the event, participants received e-certificates, and the session concluded with the inspiring words of Swamiji: "Arise, awake, and stop not till the goal is reached."
