Event description:

The Leadership Training Programme Camp was planned and organized for the students of First year NSS with the support of VIVA College of Arts, Commerce and Science. We reached the campsite at 10:30 AM in the morning on 06/01/2024 and started our camp by the inauguration carried out by Mrs. Deepa Dalvi Madam and Mr. Komal Patil Sir. After that ice breaking session was done and we were divided into five groups from which leaders and co leaders were selected and then we attended the guest lectures scheduled on that particular day. It was a five day camp in which we had several guest lectures and activities to perform. It was a great experience and truly enlightening camp in which the essential qualities of leadership were conveyed. The communication with the personalities from various colleges of Palghar district was quite interactive session. Following were the insights of the camp;

- Qualities of a good leader
- Difference between empathy & sympathy, ethics & morality.
- How leadership is parenting.
- How to believe in yourself.
- Time management, networking & learning.
- Self-awareness, effective communication & confidence building.
- Emotional intelligence, Professional etiquettes & work life balance.

We were also taught about our personal development like gaining confidence, learning new interests, understanding other people by body language, being positive, overcoming weakness etc. We also had a skit competition and topics like gender equality, cybercrime etc was gives to each group. Every group participated with great enthusiasm as Mr. Jagdish Sansare Sir had already instructed us about the ways to make act more creative. Every morning 'yoga' was carried out to make us understand the importance of personal wellbeing, peace of mind and discipline to become a good NSS leader. Special emphasis was given on how to develop leadership skills and personality development and also related the motivation of students. We were also explained about different camps that were carried out by
